

FEATURES & BENEFITS

If you want less pain at the pump, here's an easy way to lower your fleet expenses: start using Fleet One® Over The Road, the fuel card for business!

Fleet One Means ... More Control

Fleet One Over The Road (OTR) fuel cards let you limit what your drivers buy, where they buy it, and how much they spend with company funds. Plus, you get line-item reporting and complimentary online account management.

You can set up limit-based cards which allow you to create daily or weekly spending limits for your drivers that reset automatically, or choose balance-based cards to add funds as needed.

And Fleet One OTR cards reduce fraud, lost cash and unauthorized purchases.

We use Fleet One for our fuel purchases nationwide. The merchant list is very comprehensive, the PlusCheks and cash advance options have provided the support we've needed many times. My favorite aspect is the website which is simple, provides all the information I need to manage my account, and offers transactions updates instantaneously which is a tremendous asset. Customer Service has always been friendly and helpful if the need arises for me to call in. Thank you for providing such a valuable tool for this business.

With all of the reservations and doubts we go through in changing systems of any sort, I must say that Fleet One's system has been a true relief. I am finding the speed and accuracy of the system much cleaner than the other system I was using. I really appreciate your persistence in getting us to switch companies. Thanks to you and the entire staff at Fleet One.
